15 system and nonsystem roads, with priority for 16 road reductions given to key watersheds.

17 “(D) LIMITATIONS ON NEW ROADS.—The 18 Secretary shall prohibit the construction of any 19 new permanent system road in any portion of 20 the covered land within the key watersheds and 21 drinking water protection areas of the covered 22 land unless the construction contributes to 23 achieving the goals of the aquatic conservation 24 strategy.

1           “(E) NO NEW ROADS IN ROADLESS
2 AREAS.—The Secretary shall prohibit the con-
3 struction of any new road in any inventoried

18 annually use approximately $1,000,000 of 19 amounts made available under this Act to 20 transport and place large trees in streams on 15           and dry forests shall be determined as depicted on 16           the map entitled ‘O&C Land Grant Act of 2013:

17           Moist Forests and Dry Forests’, and dated Novem-18           ber 18, 2013, except that plant associations and 19           plant association groups may be used to adjust the 20           dry and moist forest assignments in specific loca-
21           tions based on an on-the-ground field examination
22           by the Secretary.

23           “(2) REDESIGNATION.—Not later than 10 years

15 context, and management goals.

16 “(B) MIXED FORESTS.—On a site at which 17 dry and moist forests combine and are not

10                  heavy equipment, on the sites; or

11                  “(B) mitigating the impact of the treat-12                  ment through actions such as the capping of ar-13                  cheological sites with wood chips, except that 14                  relying on mitigation measures to achieve no 15                  significant negative impact may only be used in-16                  frequently for timber sales.

17                  “(4) NORTHERN SPOTTED OWLS.—A vegetation
18                  treatment analyzed as part of the environmental im-

23                  ted owl recovery plan Action 10 or 32 can only occur
24                  if the Secretary, acting through the United States

1 Fish and Wildlife Service, releases an opinion that 2 the proposed vegetative treatment is—

3 “(A) compatible with requirements under 4 the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C.
5 1531 et seq.) for the northern spotted owl, con-6 sidered over the long-term; or

7 “(B) necessary to address a severe threat
8 of disease, insects, or fire.

9 “(5) WATER QUALITY.—

10 “(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to stand-11 ards under any applicable environmental law, a 12 vegetation treatment for a timber sale under 13 this section shall be designed so that the sale
14 does not result in measurable, significant nega-
15 tive impacts on water quality.

16 “(B) DETERMINATION POINTS.—For the 17 purposes of assessing potential negative impacts
18 on water quality under this section from vegeta-
19 tion treatments, the Secretary shall only con-
20 sider water quality—

21 “(i) at the time of the determination 22 to determine the present condition; and

1           that is at least 2 years after the date of 2           the timber sale.

3           “(6) NEST TREES.—

4           “(A) IN GENERAL.—No nest tree shall be 5           cut in a forestry emphasis area unless the nest

7           safety of the public or employees of the Depart-8           ment.

9           “(B) SURVEYS.—

10           “(i) IN GENERAL.—Not earlier than 11           180 days before the date the Secretary
12           plans to offer a timber sale in a forestry
13           emphasis area, the Secretary shall survey
14           the timber sale area to locate potential
15           nest trees that the Secretary has not lo-16           cated.

17           “(ii) DURATION.—The duration of the 18           survey shall be such that the Secretary
19           shall have an employee survey for nest
20           trees at a rate of 1 day for each 100 acres 21           of the timber sale.

22           “(C) INFORMATION FROM PUBLIC.—Dur-23           ing the 14-day period beginning on the date a 24           consistency document required under section

2           cerning the location of nest trees.

3                   “(D) PROTECTIONS.—The Secretary shall 4           ensure that the protections required under this 5           Act are provided for verified nest trees.

6                   “(7) MARBLED MURRELET HABITAT.—Con-
7           sistent with the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 8           U.S.C. 1531 et seq.), if the harvest of timber within 9           a limited area of marbled murrelet habitat would 10          provide benefits to a forest ecosystem (including the 11          increased diversity of stand structure, composition, 12          and age and reducing the scarcity of early succes-
13          sional habitat), the harvest may occur if the Sec-
14          retary confers with the Director of the United States 15          Fish and Wildlife Service in selecting areas within 16          marbled murrelet habitat in which timber harvests
17          may occur.

18                   “(8) SUSTAINED YIELD.—

19                   “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall,
20          to the maximum extent practicable, provide a 21          sustained yield of timber harvest, averaged over 22          a 10-year period, from the forestry emphasis 23          area, that is calculated assuming an ecological 24          forestry approach, unless the action will have

1           severe adverse environmental, economic, or so-
2           cial consequences.

3           “(B) SUSTAINED YIELD CALCULATION.—

4           The Secretary shall calculate the sustained yield
5           for a 50-year period as part of the environ-6           mental impact statement required under the 7           National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 8           U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) and section 104(a).

9           “(C) RESERVED AREAS.—In calculating 10          the sustained yield from a forestry emphasis
11          area, the Secretary shall not include the volume 12          of timber that could be offered from reserved 13          areas, such as conservation emphasis areas.

14          “(d) MANAGEMENT OF MOIST FORESTS.—

18          ciples of ecological forestry (including principles re-19          lating to variable retention regeneration harvests)
20          described in paragraph (2).

21          “(2) ECOLOGICAL FORESTRY PRINCIPLES FOR 22          MOIST FORESTS.—The ecological forestry principles
23          referred to in paragraph (1) include—

24                 “(A) the retention of old growth;

1           “(B) the seeking of opportunities to retain 2 older trees if practicable;

3           “(C) the acceleration of the development of 4 structural complexity, including spatial hetero-
5 geneity, in younger stands, through the use of 6 diverse silvicultural approaches, such as vari-
7 able density and clump-based prescriptions;

8           “(D) the implementation of variable reten-
9 tion regeneration harvesting activities that re-10 tain approximately  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the live basal area of 11 the forest within the harvest area, primarily in 12 aggregates, including riparian and other re-
13 serves and dispersed individual and small clus-
14 ters of conifers and hardwoods within the har-
15 vest area unit, a portion of which may be used
16 for snag creation, except that old growth stands
17 shall not be considered as part of the  $\frac{1}{3}$  basal
18 area retention;

19           “(E) the development and maintenance of 20 early seral ecosystems with diverse species fol-21 lowing harvesting activities through the use of 22 less intense approaches to site preparation and 23 tree regeneration and nurturing of diverse early 24 seral ecosystems;

1           “(F) the use of rotations of sufficient 2 length to allow stands to redevelop with levels
 3 of structural complexity and biodiversity char-4 acteristics of late-successional stands, but when 5 the stands reach the rotation age of the stands, 6 the stands will be regenerated through variable-7 retention harvesting; and

8           “(G) the establishment of a silvicultural 9 system that includes the development and man-10 agement of multiaged, mixed-species stands on

 14 designate not less than 8 percent and not more 15 than 12 percent of the moist forests described 16 in paragraph (1) as land on which the Sec-
 17 retary shall carry out variable retention regen-18 eration harvesting activities, consistent with 19 this section, during each 10-year period in a 20 manner consistent with the environmental im-
 21 pact statement required under the National En-22 vironmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C.
 23 4321 et seq.) and section 104(a).

24           “(B) APPLICABILITY.—The moist forests
 25 designated as variable retention regeneration

1 harvest land under subparagraph (A) shall not 2 be limited to stands that have generally reached 3 the culmination of mean annual increment.

4 “(4) THINNING.—

5 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall
6 carry out thinning activities in the moist forests
7 described in paragraph (1) to promote tree
8 growth and ecological health and variability.

9 “(B) GOALS.—The goal of thinning activi-10 ties under this paragraph shall be to establish 11 spatially variable stand densities and complex 12 canopies using thinning regimes that enhance 13 the structural and compositional diversity of the 14 stand and individual tree development.

15 “(C) LIMITATIONS.—

16 “(i) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out
17 thinning activities under this paragraph,
18 the Secretary shall not reduce the total 19 basal area of the stand (as determined on 20 the date on which the thinning activities 21 commence) by more than 50 percent.

22 “(ii) OLD GROWTH TREES.—The Sec-23 retary shall exclude old growth trees from 24 thinning activities under this paragraph.

25 “(e) MANAGEMENT OF DRY FORESTS.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Forestry emphasis areas
 2           that are designated as dry forests under this section 3           shall be managed in accordance with ecological for-4           estry principles described in paragraph (2) and, as 5           determined necessary by the Secretary, with fire re-6           siliency needs, consistent with this subsection.

7           “(2) ECOLOGICAL FORESTRY PRINCIPLES IN 8           DRY FORESTS.—The ecological forestry principles re-9           ferred to in paragraph (1) include—

10               “(A) the retention and improvement of the 11               survivability of old growth trees through the re-
 12               duction of adjacent fuels and competing vegeta-
 13               tion to promote resilience against mortality
 14               from insects, disease, and fire;

15               “(B) the retention and protection of impor-
 16               tant structures such as large hardwoods, snags, 17               and logs;

18               “(C) the reduction of overall stand den-19               sities through partial cutting in an effort to—

20                   “(i) reduce basal areas to desired lev-21                   els, particularly in overstocked stands;

22                   “(ii) increase the mean stand diame-
 23                   ter;

24                   “(iii) shift the composition of stands 25                   to fire- and drought-tolerant species; and

1                   “(iv) retain older trees for replace-2                   ment purposes;

3                   “(D) the restoration of spatial hetero-
4                   geneity through the variation of the treatment
5                   of stands, such as by leaving untreated patches, 6                   creating openings of not more than 2.5 acres, 7                   and establishing tree clumps and isolated single 8                   trees;

9                   “(E) the establishment of new tree cohorts 10                  of shade-intolerant species in created openings,

12                  acres;

13                  “(F) the harvesting of timber during the 14                  restoration process;

15                  “(G) the maintenance of sustainable and 16                  fire-resilient conditions in perpetuity through 17                  active management of the dry forests in accord-18                  ance with this subsection, including the treat-19                  ment of activity fuels and the restoration of his-20                  toric levels of surface fuels and understory vege-21                  tation using prescribed fire and mechanical ac-22                  tivities;

23                  “(H) the planning and implementation of 24                  activities at the landscape level to maintain not 25                  less than  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the dry forests as denser landscape-scale patches to provide greater forest density for endangered and threatened species and their prey; and “(I) the retention of a basal area after a partial cut that is not less than 35 percent of the initial basal area of the sale area.

“(3) FIRE RESILIENCY.—

“(A) VEGETATION TREATMENT NEAR RESIDENCES.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—For a forestry emphasis area that is designated as a dry forest under this section and located within .25 miles of a residence, the primary purpose of any vegetation treatment carried out by the Secretary on that land shall be to manage fuel loadings to reduce the risk to the residence posed by wildfire.

“(ii) ADMINISTRATION.—

“(I) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out vegetation treatment activities on land described in clause (i), the Secretary shall—

“(aa) cut and remove trees and brush to eliminate the vertical continuity of vegetative

1 fuels and the horizontal con-
2 tinuity of tree crowns for the 3 purpose of reducing flammable
4 materials and maintaining a
5 shaded fuelbreak to reduce fire
6 spread, duration, and intensity; 7 and

8 “(bb) treat surface fuels (in-
9 cluding activity fuels, low brush, 10 and deadwood) on that land that 11 could promote the spread of wild-12 fire in a manner designed to 13 achieve an average of a 4-foot
14 maximum flame length under av-
15 erage severe fire weather condi-
16 tions.

17 “(II) TIMBER SALES.—If a tim-18 ber sale is planned within  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile of 19 a residence, the Secretary is encour-
20 aged to carry out vegetation treat-
21 ment activities on that Federal land
22 at the same time as the timber sale.

23 “(III) COUNTY ACTIONS.—A
